ABOUT B E Δ S T

Beast specializes in offering extensive ranges of premium fitness-related products and services tailored to the discerning needs of our elite clientele and passionate fitness enthusiasts. Our commitment to excellence is evident in every aspect of our business, making us the trusted partners in achieving your fitness goals and creating stunning fitness spaces.

At the core of this concept is our team of health and fitness experts, who have been handpicked from across the globe. They work closely with royalty and high-net-worth individuals throughout the Middle East.

We customize the fitness needs of our customers by working closely with them, sometimes for weeks at a time, to fully understand their preferences. Then, we design an experience around their interests and likes, which turns working out into a joyful and enjoyable activity.

The success of Beast has introduced us to quite a number of customers who want us to build their gyms and are on a waiting list. Our clients come from a variety of backgrounds and have a wide range of health and fitness requirements; some want general fitness, crossfit training, or olympic lifting, while others require neurological rehabilitation or weight loss.
